Time of Sharing

On journey with our Founders: Montfort," If you to not risk anything for God, you will never do anything great for Him." L. 27

Silence and Reflection

Petitions: Let us pray especially for women who suffer discrimination and abuse, for women who exercise religious, political or social responsibilities, for women who are alone, abandoned or poor, and for all women in our lives who took care of us and supported us.

- Lord, bless all women who work every day to bring peace to their community, to their house-hold and to their heart. Give them strength to continue to change swords into ploughshares.

International Women's Day

Thursday, 8th March 2018

Theme: "The time has come: rural and urban activities are transforming women's lives."

Sub-theme of the National level: "Investing in the productive power of rural women, a priority for D.R. of Congo."

Setting: Globe, photos of rural and urban women

Entrance procession: Bring seeds, earth, tools to work the land for rural women and tools for urban women's work.

Song: to Mary

Introduction: Around the world, people are mobilizing for a fairer future. This mobilization takes on the form of a March or Global Campaigns. To invest in the productive power of rural women is a priority in our country. Restoring women's place in agriculture, in rural life and in the practice of educating and forming citizens is essential.

Meditation: For many years in Africa, young girls and women were victims of repeated wrongful effects of traditions and wars. Moreover, there is still the African illusion that women are only good for sexual exploitation, procreation, working in the fields and other work necessary for the survival of the household. But today, women are beyond this perception; women are committed to sustainable development of the country and of the world.
